ACTION ITEM

Approve Resolution No. 27, of the Board of Education of the Redlands Unified School District, Adopting Guidelines Relative to Citizens' Oversight Committees for General Obligation Bonds Approved Pursuant to Proposition 39 and Related Law.

AGENDA ITEM DESCRIPTION

On August 6, 2024, the Board of Education of the Redlands Unified School District adopted Resolution # 6, 2024-2025 calling for a general obligation bond election within the boundaries of the District to finance designated District capital projects, facilities and supporting infrastructure subject to certain limitations imposed by California law. The general obligation bond measure was designated as "Measure D" by the San Bernardino County Registrar of Voters office.

The voters within the District have voted in favor of "Measure D" by greater than the 55% affirmative vote requirement, and, as such, the District will be obligated, pursuant to State law, to form a Citizens' Oversight Committee ("Committee" or "Measure D Committee") for Measure D and to appoint the initial members of such Committee within 60 days after the Board of Education ("Board") certifies the results of the Measure D bond election.

While the Board has adopted Administrative Regulations concerning such Committees, the District Bond Counsel has recommended that the District also adopt a set of guidelines ("COC Guidelines") to govern the School District's Citizens' Oversight Committees.

Resolution # 27, 2024-2025 would adopt a set of guidelines ("COC Guidelines") to govern the School District's Citizens' Oversight Committees, their membership, actions and support for each such Committee by the District and provide guidance for District staff concerning such Committees and their activities. The proposed COC Guidelines have been prepared by the District's Bond Counsel to conform to the current provisions of State law concerning Citizens' Oversight Committees, their required membership, number of Committee members, their activities and actions and support of such Committees by the District, and are based on State law and District Bond Counsel's experience with the such Citizens' Oversight Committees of other school districts which have passed Proposition 39 bond measures.

The membership requirements for the Committees are further discussed within the COC Guidelines and State law. The appointed members of the Measure D Committee will be selected by the Board as required under State law (subject to the representation requirements set out in State law).
