a. COMMUNITY INPUT

1. Paul Blatchley

- Shared that he lives in Trustee Area 5 and is addressing the Board as a concerned High School parent.
- Spoke about revised Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5145.2 and asked for the definition of obscene.
- Questioned the Board Agenda item rewarding students who have completed the FASFA.
- Spoke about the William's complaint sharing that it does not matter that his student is forced to sit on is in good working order.
- Noted that all or part of the stadium should be named in honor of Glen Johnson, a long-time teacher at REV.

2. Candy Olson

- Shared that another case was filed where RUSD failed to protect children and there are eight more cases pending, spending $45.5 million to settle sexual lawsuits.
- Noted that the District has not admitted any guilt.
- Shared her heart is heavy for former employee Perry Davis, noting that the leadership is failing.
- Questioned when the District will stand for the children being harmed and it will not change until teachers and staff are held accountable.

3. Jeannette Wilson

- Spoke about the Uniform Complaint Policy, noting that there were two complaints and she finds that very hard to believe.
- Encouraged the Board to make the form mandatory to help with transparency.
- Shared that the culture of RUSD is to sweep issues under the rug and the new Superintendent has a cloud over his head.
- Noted that everything should be about the children, encouraging everyone to follow the law and report child abuse.

4. Sara Russ

- Noted that she has two kids in RUSD and is concerned about eAcademy beta testing the Minecraft education edition for the District.

- Feels that the app has non-educational video games and many unanswered questions about safety.
- Shared that her concerns are not unreasonable and should be addressed.
- Noted that the kids are not monitored or tracked while using the app.

VIII. STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE'S REPORT

- a. Thomas Herron from Redlands High School reported on events happening at RHS, REV, OHS, eAcademy, and CVHS.

RHS:

- The chamber singers did really well at their competition in San Antonio and we applaud Mr. Diaz on his incredible program.
- The Les Chanteus leave for their competition in St Louis.
- The Winter Guard took 4th at their finals on Saturday and our Winter Percussion Ensemble took 2nd in their competition.
- Over Spring break the Mock Trial did really well at their competition.
- The school went through all phases of the WASC accreditation successfully.
- They have started passing out caps and gowns for seniors.
- This upcoming Friday is the Optimists game and they encourage everyone to come and support our incredible students.
- April 20th is the Prom at the Classic Golf Club in Palm Desert.
- The Senior In-n-Out party for those who applied for the fafsa will take place in a few weeks.

CVHS:

- Citrus Valley Prom is this Saturday, April 13, which is being held at Palm Desert.
- CV is also holding a Spirit Week this week in preparation for our Spring Rally this Friday.
- The CV Advanced Choir won the Adjudicator's Award and 1st place at the World Strides.
- Choral Festival that was held in New Orleans last weekend.
- The Citrus Valley Winter Guard won 3rd place overall in the Scholastic Region A: Mojave Division at the West Coast Winter Guard Championships this past Saturday!
- Varsity Badminton is off to a great start of the season, winning 3-1 overall, and starts League play tomorrow against REV.
- Varsity Baseball is on a long victory streak, having won their past 7 games. They are now sitting at the top of CBL and looking forward to playing home games against Cajon tomorrow and on Friday.
- AVID and ROP students had Mock Interviews this past week. Volunteers from the community came and helped CV students with important skills needed for future job interviews.
- SBAC Testing begins for Juniors starting April 15.
- AP Testing begins on May 6

REV:

- Tomorrow, REV's AVID program will be re-validated for their distinction as a National Demonstration School. Their AVID program first received this prestigious recognition in 2020 and has held it ever since!
- Also tomorrow, REV PTSA will host a Raising Cane's fundraiser from noon to 9:00pm. Just mention the fundraiser at the register!
- REV's Instrumental Music program will host REVfest tomorrow and Thursday, inviting middle school and elementary bands to receive professional feedback and participate in fun games and activities!
- The Instrumental Music program will also present their annual Movie Night on April 26th and 27th. This fan favorite event pairs live music with scenes from your favorite films and entertainment. This year's theme is Video Games.

- Last weekend was REV's Prom, this year's theme was Mirrorball and it was hosted at Indian Wells in Palm Springs. They also hosted their last rally of the year!
- This last point applies more to all schools than it just does REV, up to you if / how you want to fit it in:
- This week is Senior Day at San Bernardino Valley College (Wednesday) and Crafton Hills College (Friday). This is a great opportunity for seniors to visit and learn about our nearby community colleges and their options after high school.

OHS:

- The Battle bot competition is coming soon and they can't wait to destroy the competition with their new bots.
- Fire Fair is next week, a wonderful time for new students and their parents to learn about the classes and clubs at Orangewood.
- eSports club is getting ready for the RUSD smash bros tournament, they are so glad to see all the schools come together for some friendly competition.
- OHS placed 2nd in boys basketball, congrats to the team!
- The first soccer game is tomorrow and both the boys and girls teams are shaping up for an amazing game.
- Friday the league is having a 5k against all schools and they hope all Orangewood students participating pace themselves and bring home the gold.
- MECHA celebrated the amazing work Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta did this week with interactive activities during lunch and delicious champurrado to warm everyone up. They had a great time and learned a lot.
- April 16th is the second blood drive of the year, life stream was so happy with the work the first year that they just had to come back! If you're free on the 16th please schedule an appointment as the blood is greatly needed.
- They have tons of plans to celebrate the earth month over at Orangewood and encourage others in the district and community to do their part.

E Academy:

- This coming Monday is the Knowledge Fair from 10 am to 12 pm.
- The prom is coming up on April 25th.
