XX. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

a. COMMUNITY INPUT

1. Dale Broome

- Shared that his group has been complaining for almost a year regarding the sexually graphic books in the school libraries. Shared that nine complaints have been submitted and that that six of the library books were found acceptable and has not heard anything on the others.

- Read an excerpt from John Green's book "Looking for Alaska" noting that the book has sexually graphic material. He further shared that the book has been removed from middle school but is still present in two of the high school libraries and feels it is not appropriate.
- Expressed that action from administration is needed and asked the Board to stop stonewalling them on the library books.

2. Lea

- Noted that she watched the meetings online and wanted to address some of the comments heard.
- Urged the Board to place parental notification on the agenda as she feels like parents should know what is going on with their kids and wondered why it is acceptable to let kids make gender decisions without parental consent.
- Inquired about children being their own person and wondered about a child getting in an accident and who would be responsible. Further noting that parents should make decisions for kids.
- Noted that Mr. Cabral had made mention in the past about parents reviewing their child's student record and wondered how parents would go about doing that.

3. Paul Blatchley

- Echoed what the previous parent said and stated that if anyone read the School Safety Plans they would be amazed about how many statements there are about getting parents involved with a student's bad behavior.
- Shared that he doesn't understand why the District would cut parents out of notifications.
- Noted that the last board meeting made him sad as the meetings are getting so far away from the main charge which is educating kids.
- Expressed that the Board should be acting as a check and balance on the District and not just a rubber stamp. He further encouraged the Board to look at agenda and not just approve everything.
- Noted that he felt the whole flag policy discussion does not matter because you can see from the reaction of the teachers that they are just going to ignore it.
- Shared that the Safety Plans don't say anything about pride flags in classrooms and wondered if the flag makes kids feel safe then why isn't it part of safety plan.
- Expressed that people before the meeting were joking about indoctrination and feels that parents should come sit in classrooms because the problem with the District is that the teachers essentially can deliver any content, any way they want and can emphasize certain areas of the curriculum based on their own personal beliefs.
- Feels that more that could be done from the Board and the District.

4. Joshua Hall

- Spoke about Assembly Bill 1078, signed into law by the Governor to ensure all students have access to the appropriate materials, sharing that he feels there is nothing educational about queer theory or queer lifestyle.
- Noted that there is a provision in AB 1078 which prohibits removing LGBTQ content and ideology, but feels that people can still exercise their own authority to remove content. Further noting that by not allowing the removal of LGBTQ content, it is going against the stated purpose of ensuring the queer lifestyle and he feels it is not appropriate for students.
- Wondered why we are teaching students about sexuality.

5. Candy Olson

- Requested that a new policy be placed on the agenda for the next Board Meeting since the current book policy does not work.
- Inquired about a previous statement made about how if someone sees a pride flag and disagrees with it, then they can just go away and not talk to them when it comes to students in the classroom. She further shared that she thought that it was interesting to expect children to run away.
- Concerned about the way the English language is being changed by referring to people as “they”.
- Shared that students are being indoctrinated by certain teachers but it may not be known because when you are in the classroom they are not going to talk about controversial subjects.
- Noted that the Board should be more careful when they say indoctrination isn’t going on. Further sharing that children should not have to stare at a flag that is offensive to them.
- Expressed that schools should be all inclusive and the America Flag is not offensive to anyone. Further sharing that everyone should feel comfortable, not just some students.

6. Valerie Taber

- Shared that she is concerned about two topics. The first being Salinas Family Counseling as she feels that their profanity on social media is a concern and the second being that it is misleading for people to state that counselors are trying to separate families. Further sharing that no person is required to be in an unhealthy relationship.
- Urged the Board to consider closed captioning to support inclusivity.

7. Trisha Keeling

- Applauded the Board for the way they have been standing up to hatred further noting that many of the people speaking do not have kids in RUSD.

2. Paulina Angel

- Shared that she serves as Founder and Director of Transgender Resource, Advocacy & Network Service (T.R.A.N.S.), and Executive Director of Trans Community Project in the Coachella Valley.
- Noted that this is nothing more than a blatant attack against Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Youth and that the Board needs to do better in making schools a safe place for all kids.
- Urged the Board to not take up and vote for these kinds of policies, and to not let hate define the school district.

3. Lissie Antos

- Noted that she is a parent of 2 RUSD students as well as a teacher and wants to make sure that the Board understands that the Flag Policy group is trying to link the acceptance of LGBTQ members of our community to abuse against children and so-called "indoctrination" of students.
- Voiced strong support for not instituting a flag policy.

4. Robert Bourne

- Understands that there is discussion about banning all flags from RUSD campuses other than the US or California flags and would like to voice support for freedom of expression.
- Asked the Board to allow students and faculty their appropriate freedoms.

5. Guesto Tweet

- Noted that he was a high school student who attended RHS and was involved in GSA.
- Shared that the LGBTQ+ flags may seem benign, but they are incredibly important to a lot of people on campus, even though there may not be a lot of people showing express support.
- Urged the Board to not change the current policy to ban LGBTQ+ flags as it will bring nothing but harm to every school campus.
