

GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS - The Redlands Unified School District Citizens' Oversight Committee Guidelines.

I. Adoption of Guidelines - Legal Authority.

- 1.0 This Redlands Unified School District (“District”) Citizens’ Oversight Committee Guidelines (“COC Guidelines”) is adopted and established by the Board of Education (“Board”) of the District pursuant to the provisions and requirements of Article 2 of Chapter 1.5 of Part 5 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the California Education Code 15264 et seq., (hereinafter the “Law”) and pursuant to Education Code Section 35160. These COC Guidelines shall apply to the District and each Oversight Committee (as defined below).

II. Background.

- 2.0 On November 7, 2000, California voters approved Proposition 39, the Smaller Classes, Safer Schools and Financial Accountability Act (School Facilities; 55% Local Vote; Bonds, Taxes; Accountability Requirements). The central purpose and legislative intent of Proposition 39 was to ensure that the expenditures of bond measures are in strict conformity with the law; that taxpayers directly participate in each Oversight Committee reviewing applicable bond expenditures; and that members of each Oversight Committee alert the public to any waste or improper expenditure of school construction bond money.

The provisions of Proposition 39 include various accountability requirements as further discussed herein. In association with the approval of Proposition 39, the California Legislature passed, and the Governor signed, Assembly Bill 1908 (“AB 1908”), which provides additional requirements relative to school district general obligation bond elections conducted pursuant to Proposition 39. Those requirements include provisions requiring school districts that are successful in a Proposition 39 bond election to establish, appoint and support a citizens’ oversight committee, as required by the Law. This COC Guidelines were adopted by the District pursuant to the Law in order to provide procedures for the District’s Citizens’ Oversight Committee(s) (“Oversight Committee(s)”) and to address related matters.
